

NOTIFICATION OF EMERGENCY MEASURES

Addendum

The following communication, received on 17 July 2012, is being circulated at the request of the Delegation of Indonesia.

Revocation of import prohibition of Meat Bone Meal (MBM) from the United State of America

Following the outbreak of Bovine Spongiform Encephalopathy (BSE) in California (United States of America) on 24 April 2012, the Indonesian Government is taking urgent measures to prohibit importation of Meat Bone Meal (MBM), offal, bone in meat and gelatin of bone origin from the United States of America. The import prohibition was notified as G/SPS/N/IDN/50 on 8 May 2012. This prohibition is based on the Dictum 6 of the Decree of the Minister of Agriculture No. 3238 of 2009 concerning the Categorization of Animal Quarantine Disease and Classification of Carrier, and Ministerial Circular Letter No. 02 of 2012 dated 26 April 2012.

Based on the results of the risk analysis study of animal health and veterinary public health associated with the importation of MBM from the United States of America by the Indonesian Risk Analysis Team from Directorate of Animal Health, Directorate General of Livestock and Animal Health, and taking into account the review from Expert Committee on Animal Health and Veterinary Public Health related to BSE, and discussions between expert of BSE and animal health from Indonesia and the United States of America, the Minister of Agriculture on behalf of the Indonesian Government through Ministerial Circular Letter No. 204/PD.620/M/7/2012 dated 5 July 2012 instruct to revoke the temporary import prohibition of Meat Bone Meal (MBM) from the United States of America.

Three other products (offal, bone in meat and gelatin of bone origin) still need risk analysis assessment more in-depth and comprehensive due to their direct impact on human health.
